BUY WAR BONDS

Dear Collectors and Dealers:—

Again I have the pleasure of presenting for your consideration a very diverse collection of coins of all ages, Gold and Silver and Copper, a fine lot of large cents, etc.

According to some recent sales the O.P.A. has failed to put ceiling prices on some of the rare American coins, as my observations of the rise and fall of prices during more than fifty years of Numismatics I believe we are near the top of the Numismatic Bull Market.

High prices and new buyers with plenty of cash also bring into the picture fakes. Altered dates, Forgeries, Electrotypes. In this connection it is unlawful to offer or sell a counterfeit U. S. coin, which the electrotypes are. I have never listed or offered either of these and the profit derived therefrom does not appeal to me.

I trust collectors will find there are many fields where much pleasure and knowledge can be gained that has not been exploited. I trust my short message will be taken as a warning to the new and inexperienced collectors to whom I am always willing to give the benefit of past studies.

With best wishes to all.

Very truly yours,

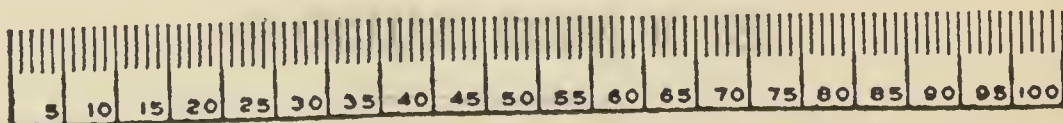

GEORGE J. BAUER.
